COULD BASINGSTOKE'S COUNCIL BE SCRAPPED?

Fire station demolition complete

BASINGSTOKE'S old fire station is no more after the long-serving headquarters of the town's firefighting service was finally demolished last week.

Plans to replace the building, which has served Basingstoke from its base in West Ham Close since 1967, were approved by the borough council two years ago.

And the first stage of the £6million redevelopment project has now been completed, after the station was bulldozed to make way for what will be Hampshire's biggest station.

The new station is expected to take around a year to build.

County unveils proposal for one unitary authority

PLANS to completely alter local government in Hampshire by replacing all existing councils with one unitary authority have been unanimously criticised by Basingstoke councillors.

By Christian Wilson

Hampshire County Council announced on Friday that it would launch a public consultation to float the idea of scrapping the area's 11 district councils to create the 'Hampshire Council'. The authority made the revelation just days after backing a proposal involving Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council and five other districts to form a 'Heart of Hampshire' combined authority.

Crucially, this deal would see increased powers and responsibilities over housing and health-care devolved down from Government to the councils, as opposed to removing them altogether.

And while this proposal has now been sent to the secretary of state, borough council leader Clive Sanders told the authority's cabinet this week that he feared that the cogs of the idea to form one council were now in motion.

Speaking at Monday's meeting, he said: "This would mean that planning applications in Brighton Hill are decided in Winchester by councillors from Fareham or Gosport – how is that local government?

"But the unitary genie is now out of the bottle and you can't put it back.

"If we're talking about saving money, we should just do away with Hampshire County Council."

The 'Heart of Hampshire' deal would cover councils in Hart, New Forest, Rushmoor, Test Valley and Winchester, but would require the support of the county council to go ahead.

A separate proposal to form a Solent combined authority including Southampton, Portsmouth, Eastleigh, Fareham, East Hampshire, Gosport, Havant and the Isle of Wight has also been submitted.

But the county council has warned that this would split Hampshire in two, while also claiming that a county unitary would save more than £40million a year and lower council tax.

Council leader Roy Perry said: "Unfortunately, these proposals devolve very few powers down

Two motorists killed on Basingstoke roads

TWO motorists were killed in separate incidents on the roads in the Basingstoke area last week.

Alton musician Chris Burgess, 27, was fatally injured after his Volkswagen Golf collided with a Volkswagen Tiguan on the A339 at Winslade last Thursday night.

And police opened up a separate investigation two days later after Basingstoke resident Keith Read died following a minor car crash on the A340 in Basingstoke.

Mr Read, of Tippet Gardens, was driving north along the road at around 3.50pm on Saturday

By Christian Wilson

when he had a "medical episode" on the Thornycroft roundabout, on the junction of the B3400 Churchill Way West and A340 Ring Way West.

This caused him to lose control of his Lotus 2eleven and run into a Ford Focus, before eventually stopping on an embankment, near Milestones Museum.

The 57-year-old was treated at the scene by paramedics and rushed to Basingstoke hospital, but died later that day.

Police are also investigating a separate incident on the A339, close to the Lasham turning, at 11.55pm on Thursday, which saw "talented guitar player" Mr Burgess, of Haydock Close, die while driving home from a gig.

He was pronounced dead at the scene, with police charging Richard Storry, 34, of Evesham Road in Cleeve Prior, Worcestershire, with causing his death by driving without due care and attention and while unfit through drink.

Mr Burgess's family has this week paid tribute to the Alton resident, insisting that the loss would result in "a hole" left in all those who knew him.

The statement read: "Chris will be missed by so many people; he was a great friend, loving son and caring brother, with a remarkably kind nature."

"He had a wicked sense of humour and was incredibly funny."

"For everyone who came into contact with Chris, there will be a hole left where a joke would have been found."

They added: "The music scene has lost an awesome and talented guitar player, adding so much energy and life into the bands he played in."

"On the night of Chris's death he was on his way home from a gig. It may have been his last, but he will rock on forever."

ingstoke Magistrates' Court on Monday, with his case being sent to Winchester Crown Court for June 15.

Anyone with any information relating to the Winslade collision is asked to call the Serious Collision Investigation Unit on 101, quoting Operation Harmonic.

And police have also asked that eyewitnesses call the JOU Roads Policing Unit at Whitchurch on the same number for the A340 incident, quoting Operation Thorny.

Hospital receives maternity award

HAMPSHIRE'S hospital trust has been recognised as delivering world-class care for mothers and babies.

Unicef and the World Health Organisation have awarded Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) Baby Friendly accreditation.

The award is only handed out to hospitals that show recognised best practice standards are in place following a lengthy assessment by the global charity.

Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital (BNHH), Royal Hampshire County Hospital (RHCH) in Winchester and Andover War Memorial Hospital (AWMH) are all run by the trust.

HHFT associate director of midwifery and women's health, Janice Mackenzie, said: "We all feel really proud to have achieved Unicef Baby Friendly accreditation."

"Our success is a reflection of the ongoing commitment of our maternity and neonatal staff to ensuring high quality care for mothers and babies."

"It shows that there is a real desire to change things for the better within our trust."

In the UK the global initiative works with public services to protect, promote and support breastfeeding and to strengthen mother-baby and family relationships.

Supervisor of midwives and clinical lead for infant feeding at Basingstoke hospital, Helen Allen, added: "Today is the celebration of a long journey to achieve a world-class accreditation."

Analysis of centre cuts plans underway

THE findings of a consultation that will decide the future of Basingstoke's 11 children's centres are now being analysed by the county council.

Only the Honeycomb Centre in Buckskin is earmarked to remain open as part of Hampshire's County Council proposed cost-saving cuts.

In total, the authority is proposing to slash the number of centres countywide from 54 to 11 – meaning each district will combine all their services under one roof.

If given the go ahead, Lily Pads in Chineham, Courtyard in Lychpit, Octopus in Oakridge, Badgers in Bishops Green, Pebbles in Popley, Hometree in Tadley, Westside in South Ham, Buttercups in Brighton Hill, Bunnies in Hatch Warren and Snowdrops in Overton would all close.

The council believe that £8.5million could be saved by the move, with executive lead member for children's services, Keith Mans, due to make a final decision on the plans on July 1.

He said: "I will be carefully considering the views provided, and comments from the children and young people select committee, before making any decision."

"This is a challenging time for the authority, which has seen huge reductions in its central Government funding in recent years."

He added: "This has affected budgets for all services and, with reducing levels of resource, the county council must think about different ways of delivering services that will be sustainable for the future."

Long-serving councillor honoured for record stint

IT is fair to say that when she first became a borough councillor in 1976, the prospect of breaking records with the authority didn't cross Marilyn Tucker's mind.

But 40 years on and the representative for Pamber and Silchester has done just that after setting the longest consecutive term in office of anyone in Basingstoke and Deane for the last 100 years at least.

The 76-year-old first got into local politics back in the 1970s in a bid to ensure that overground rather than underground electricity was provided for residents in Bramley.

And despite admitting that the borough looked and sounded a little bit different in 2016 with things moving at "a million miles an hour", Cllr Tucker told the Observer that she still had the same fire in her belly to help people.

She said: "I'm very lucky to have such a lovely rural area to represent."

"I didn't get into the council for politics, I just wanted to help people, so it's wonderful they keep voting for me."

"I've always tried to take things

By Christian Wilson

one step at a time, but I still enjoy it as much as I did before."

Cllr Tucker has spent the whole of her long tenure with Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council serving the same ward, with her unique achievement due to be recognised at tonight's mayor making ceremony at the council's civic offices.

And ahead of the ceremonial event, the leader of the authority was quick to lead the plaudits for the mother of one.

"Forty years has to be seen as unique for this council and Marilyn should be applauded by all for this remarkable achievement," said leader Clive Sanders.

"And to do it all in one area as well is certainly an exceptional example of public duty and commitment."

"To do 40 years is good enough as it is, but she's determined to carry on, which is even better, so I would like to pass on all of our enormous thanks to her."

Cllr Tucker added: "Time flies by so fast that you never really think about these things."

"But I'm still here, I still love it, and I'm still surviving."

Local plan

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The borough council took another step closer to adopting its local plan at a meeting on Monday.

Members of the council's cabinet recommended that the authority pass the plans, which will see 850 new homes built across Basingstoke and Deane each year until 2029.

A Government planning inspector declared the proposal as 'sound' last month, following an examination throughout the autumn.

And the council will vote on whether to formally adopt the plans at a meeting of full council next Thursday evening.

Pub assault

BASINGSTOKE: A Basingstoke man has been arrested following an assault outside a pub last Friday.

The incident took place between 10.40pm and 11pm at the Great Western pub in Vyne Road, with police looking to speak to the driver of a car which is understood to have pulled up at the pub at the time.

The 34-year-old suspect has been arrested on suspicion of assault on a person thereby occasioning them actual bodily harm, and bailed until June 26.

Concerns raised over single council plan

from central Government, but would transfer, and therefore split, some of the county's key services such as highways and transport.

"It is simply indefensible that we should be taken down that path with so little information or attempt to establish if there is public consent."

If a unitary council were to be formed, Hampshire's 478 councillors would be whittled down to less than 100 – a change unanimously criticised across the parties by Basingstoke councillors.

Calling for the borough to become unitary in its own right, Labour group leader Paul Harvey, said:

"A single all-encompassing unitary council stretching from New Milton to Aldershot, Petersfield to Andover, Basingstoke to Gosport is undemocratic and utterly unrealistic."

"Handing our assets over is not in the interests of the people of Basingstoke and Deane."

Cabinet member for planning and infrastructure, Mark Ruffell, said:

"Right now we have a two-tier system that overall works pretty well, and so now to say that the only way to have devolution is to tear it all up is bonkers."

"This is preposterous and smacks of nothing more than political posturing."

Deputy leader Terri Reid added: "The idea fills me with absolute dread – the thought of the county council being the only authority in Hampshire is quite ghastly."

Charity given £1,200 boost after teams contest quiz

MORE than £1,000 was raised for a Basingstoke cancer charity from a fundraising quiz night last week.

Thirteen teams from businesses across the town supported REED Accountancy Basingstoke's event at Audleys Wood Hotel in Alton Road last Thursday.

A total of £1,218 was raised for the Ark Cancer Centre Charity, with the tally also due to be doubled after being put through Greenham Common Trust's findmeagrant match-funding programme.

Director of fundraising and communications for the charity, Mark Jones, said: "It was a fun evening and thanks go to everyone who supported the event."

The charity is looking to raise £5million to help build a new cancer treatment centre for the area.

Bound 'delighted' to join council cabinet

BASINGSTOKE and Deane's council appointed a new member to its decision-making cabinet last week.

Rooksdown councillor Simon Bound has replaced outgoing member for Kingsclere, Cathy Osselton, who retired this month after 13 years with the authority.

Cllr Bound will take over the portfolio for communities and community safety for the next year, with council leader Clive Sanders backing him to be a success in the role.

Speaking at last Thursday's full council meeting, Cllr Sanders said: "With his extensive experience in working in the local community with a range of different age groups and needs, Cllr Bound is well placed to take over the reins from Cllr Osselton."

"She was a highly-respected cabinet member dedicated to making a real difference to people's lives and I know he will continue this drive to support the many groups that contribute so much to the life of our area."

Cllr Bound retained his seat on the borough council at this month's elections and admitted that he "couldn't feel more privileged" to take on the new role.

He said: "I see the borough as a place of great diversity with an opportunity for everyone to benefit from the current and planned growth and investment. "I couldn't feel more privileged than to be asked to take on responsibility for communities across the borough."

"I make a commitment to support the people across the borough to achieve that and look forward to working with local community groups."

Both Cllr Sanders and deputy leader Terri Reid were confirmed in their roles at last week's meeting, while Jane Frankum and Paul Frankum were appointed as the borough's mayor and deputy mayor for the next year respectively, ahead of today's mayor-making ceremony.

It was also announced at the meeting that the other four members of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's cabinet - John Izett, Hayley Eachus, Mark Ruffell and Robert Tate - would be continuing their current roles.

Cllr Sanders added: "This is a very exciting time for our borough, with so much happening to build a successful future for our residents, today and in generations to come."

He continued: "I feel proud to be working alongside such a strong team with a range of experience and skills in a wide range of different businesses and professions and years of service to local communities."

MP highlights need for new town hospital

BASINGSTOKE'S MP Maria Miller has called on the NHS to stop delaying the building of a new hospital in Basingstoke.

Plans to build a £150million critical care unit in North Waltham north of junction 7 of the M3 were granted planning permission by Basingstoke's council last October.

But construction work has been blocked from commencing after concerns on costing were raised by the North and West Hampshire Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCG).

This led to the project being halted while the NHS conducted a comprehensive review of local healthcare.

Mrs Miller said: "Unfortunately the wider NHS is still considering these proposals, all of which already have widespread support amongst the community, a site identified and outline planning permission given."

She said local healthcare experts had been calling for the centralisation of services since 2012.

She added: "The investigation opened by NHS Improvement demonstrates the need for change and I hope the wider NHS now better understands the urgency and the impact on people in Basingstoke of delaying this change."

Report shows home needs to improve

A ROOKSDOWN care home has been told that it "requires improvement" following a surprise inspection from a health regulator.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) has released the findings of its visit to Homefield House Nursing Home in Homefield Way in February.

Inspectors raised concerns on safety and the effectiveness of the home, which is run by Shaw Healthcare and provides nursing and residential care for up to 24 people for people living with a wide range of different conditions.

Specialist support is provided for people living with dementia and receiving end-of-life care.

The report gave the home an overall rating of "requires improvement".

It said: "Guidance was not always followed to support people in the most effective way."

However, the report did grade the service as "good" for being caring, responsive and well-led.

Shaw Healthcare has since appointed a new manager to address the problems raised in the report.

A spokesperson for the firm said: "We're pleased to see that the majority of our criteria score is good."

Bid to keep children in care from crimes

A NEW agreement has been signed to better prevent children in foster care and children's homes in Hampshire from committing crime.

The 14-page memorandum of understanding aims to minimise the factors that lead to so-called

By Christian Wilson

"looked after children" from offending.

Young people in care are significantly more likely to be involved in the youth justice and prison system than other children their age.

Hampshire's former police and crime commissioner (PCC) Simon Hayes spent £451,000 last year on restorative justice techniques to deter them from getting involved in crime.

And after signing the agreement ahead of his first day in office last Thursday, the new PCC Michael Lane spoke of his willingness to "build upon the work" already under way.

He said: "I am delighted that one of my first actions as commissioner is to do something for children, particularly those at risk where we have potential to improve their life opportunities."

The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) Wessex, Hampshire County Council and Hampshire Constabulary also approved the memorandum, which seeks to look into any potential deep-rooted causes for looked after children engaging in anti-social behaviour.

The CPS hopes that the link-up with local partners will help stop children being prosecuted for low-level offences early on and heading down the criminal path.

Hampshire Chief Constable, Olivia Pinkney, said: "Looked after children are some of the most vulnerable people in our society."

"This agreement will help improve the support they need, not just from one local authority or agency but from all of the partners working together."

• PCC Michael Lane, Chief Constable Olivia Pinkney and the CPS's Kate Brown sign the new agreement

County elects former mayor as chairman

A FORMER borough councillor has been elected as the new chairman of Hampshire County Council.

Keith Chapman MBE was chosen by his fellow councillors at the authority's annual meeting on Friday.

The councillor for Calleva and Kingsclere has twice served as the mayor of Basingstoke and Deane.

Cllr Chapman has taken over from Jonathan Glen in the role and has chosen "youth and music" as his chosen theme for his year in office.

He said: "I have a great love of music and in particular, how music can have such a positive and inspirational impact on all people."

"I think it is especially important for young people to have the opportunity to take part in and enjoy music, either as a player or in the audience."

BASINGSTOKE: A community group is calling on Basingstoke residents to tell them how they would improve an eight-acre, open-space site in the town centre.

Residents clubbed together to stop a football stadium being built on the Old Common in Eastrop last year, with the borough council blocking the plans as a result.

The Friends of the Old Common group has been created with the help of Natural Basingstoke to help preserve the council-owned land.

Leave your suggestions on how you would improve the site by emailing the group via ftoc16@gmail.com.

Duck race to help Ark cancer centre

A BASINGSTOKE cancer charity has been chosen to receive all the money raised by the borough's popular annual duck race.

Hundreds of people are expected to attend the Bank Holiday Monday event at Bartons Mill in Old Basing on May 30.

The race will see about 500 numbered plastic ducks race along the River Loddon - last year's spectacle raised £1,000 for Basingstoke Dial-A-Ride.

Residents will be able to pick their duck and cheer it on at the family event, with two tickets for a scenic flight on a private plane being the top prize up for grabs for the lucky winner.

Tickets will cost £1, with organisers the Basingstoke Loddon Rotary Club announcing that Ark Cancer Centre Charity would receive all of the funds raised from this year's event.

Rotarian John Bonner said: "This is a great family event where the kids, in particular, love to watch the ducks race."

By Christian Wilson

"There will be a prize for each heat winner, and the special prize of the flight will go to the winner of the grand final."

"Hopefully, the weather will be kind to us, this will be a great fun day for all, and a generous donation will go to Ark Cancer Centre Charity."

Ark Cancer Centre Charity

is looking to raise £5million towards building the area's first cancer treatment centre in North Waltham, near to junction 7 of the M3.

Other prizes will be on offer to the winners of the four heats in the lead-up to the final race, while residents will be hoping to enjoy face-painting stands and music on offer in the hopefully sunny weather.

Ark Cancer Centre Charity director of fundraising and communications, Mark Jones, said: "The Basingstoke Loddon Rotarians are great supporters of the charity, and we are grateful to them for supporting the fundraising campaign through this year's duck race day."

For more information about this year's duck race, visit the website: birotary.uk.

Residents will hope for a repeat of the hot weather at last year's duck race

Town children reported as being victims of trafficking

A TOTAL of six children were reported as victims of human trafficking in Basingstoke last year, new figures from the National Crime Agency have revealed.

The figure is the 13th-highest in the country, with the report showing 3,266 potential victims as coming forward nationwide during the period.

Police across the UK have dealt with 40 per cent more recorded incidents in the last year, compared to 2014, with 10 victims coming forward across Hampshire as a whole.

A total of 17 minors were also involved in 2015 on the Isle of Wight - the highest of any area in England.

Basingstoke MEP Catherine Bearder authored a report voted on in the European Parliament last week calling for more to be done to help victims of human trafficking across the European Union.

She said: "While there has been a lot of progress made in recent years to dismantle criminal gangs running this vile trade, not enough is being done to help the victims."

"The government must step up efforts to train law enforcement officials so they can spot the signs and give trafficking victims the help they need."

Apprentices help keep church's bells ringing

TWO apprentices from Basingstoke and Tadley have clubbed together to restore a community's church bells.

By Christian Wilson

realising a year ago that they were in urgent need of repair.

Thomas Dowson, 28, and Kieran Monger, 20, spent two days turning and repairing six bells at the top of a 100-foot tower at St John's Church in Mortimer, near Tadley.

The bells were installed in 1896 but had not been structurally updated since then, with officials

And following a request for support, nuclear deterrent manufacturers Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) donated the time of apprentices Thomas, from Basingstoke, and Tadley's Kieran.

"This was a really great opportunity for me to learn new skills," said Thomas. "It was a once-in-a-lifetime experience to touch bells that are over 100 years old."

"It feels really good to be able to give back to the community in this way."

The duo helped professional bellhangers, Whites of Appleton, to carry out repairs to the timber bell frame and overhaul some of the ringing fittings.

Steeple keeper Andrew Slater said: "The support received from AWE has helped move this community project forward."

"And it has been great to see how enthusiastic the two apprentices have been to learn new skills from the experts at Whites of Appleton."

AWE took on 42 trainees as part of its apprenticeship scheme last year, which saw each handed three years' training at its bases in Aldermaston and Burghfield.

Skills academy manager Marcus Hutchings said: "Apprentices are crucial to AWE filling our critical skills gap and events such as this illustrate how dynamic an apprenticeship at AWE is."

"AWE is committed to being a good neighbour and working with local communities."

Chapel Hill homes plan agreed

• An artist's illustration of the development

PLANS to build almost 600 homes in Basingstoke town centre were granted full planning permission last week.

A total of 578 houses will be built at Chapel Hill, off Kingsclere Road, after the borough council's development control approved a reserved matters application on Wednesday night.

Local developers Sentinel Housing will link up with Barratt David Wilson for the project, which will include the construction of 247 houses and 275 apartments, as well as a huge communal open-space area.

The former home of pharmaceutical company Eli Lilly will not be demolished on the site as part of the redevelopment, while 230 of the new dwellings are set to be affordable housing for either rent or shared ownership.

Sentinel development and regeneration director, Mike Shepherd, said: "The redevelopment of this important town centre site is long awaited by the local community."

"It will deliver much-needed family homes for Basingstoke residents to enjoy for generations to come."

CCTV images released after £1,000-plus theft from store

POLICE have released CCTV images of a woman wanted on suspicion of stealing more than £1,000 worth of sunglasses from a Basingstoke town centre store.

She took pairs of Versace, Givency and Ray Bans designer glasses from Boots in the Malls last Wednesday between 11.50am and noon.

The woman is described as being olive-skinned, aged about 25 to 30, about 5ft 7ins tall, of medium build, with long black hair.

She was wearing a grey cardigan, dark trousers, black Nike trainers with a white sole and the white Nike 'tick' logo, and a white bracelet.

Anyone who witnessed the incident or recognises the woman from the description or the CCTV should contact police on 101, quoting crime reference number 44160176810, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Challenge issued to town's young chefs

• Head chef at The Sun Inn, in Dummer, Gordon Stott, is looking for the best young chefs in Basingstoke

A BASINGSTOKE chef is challenging young cooking students to prove they're the best in town.

Landlord and head chef of The Sun Inn, Gordon Stott, is looking to unearth the next young culinary talent as part of his Master Chef competition.

The 25-year-old became one of the youngest people in the country to take on the dual position when he joined the Dummer pub in 2010.

And Gordon is looking to help other young people gain a foothold in the industry by giving three trainee chefs the chance to cook for 30 diners on a budget in order to be named The Sun Inn Master Chef 2016.

He said: "It's important for aspiring chefs to gain experience while training and see what the industry is like so they are well prepared."

"Yes, it can be hard work, but it's also very rewarding and there are a lot of opportunities for dedicated individuals."

Basingstoke College of Technology (BCoT) student Stephen Naylor won last year's competition. The prizes for this year's winner are a top-of-the-range knife set and a meal for two at a Michelin-starred restaurant.

By Christian Wilson

A report last year by VisitEngland highlighted a shortage of skilled chefs in the UK, and Gordon is hoping that the contest will help discover more talent.

He said: "Over the years we have employed a number of ex-BCoT students for various roles and we want this to continue. I'm looking forward to seeing what this year's students can do."

A total of £510 was also raised for charity at last year's event, with the Ark Cancer Centre Charity being chosen to benefit from the showpiece at The Restaurant at BCoT on June 29.

Charity trustee Merv Rees said he was grateful for the support of Gordon and his team and the participating chefs in the fine-dining event.

He said: "I am sure that those attending will be treated to a marvellous dining experience, and I am confident their show of support for the food that is served, and the charity, will be reflected in their donations."

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. FASTFIT SERVICE CENTRE

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an engine overhaul or just tweak-ing the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to drive. In these tough times, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

Look at our Opening Times!

Mon to Fri: 8am - 5.30pm, Sat: 8am - 1pm

SINCE April 2011, 'Game of Thrones' has taken the world by storm.

The fantasy-drama television programme has attracted millions of fans worldwide with its gripping storylines, so it's no surprise that the programme has won almost 200 awards from more than 500 nominations in the last five years.

But the serious nature of the hit show has been thrown out of the window as 'Graeme of Thrones' comes to The Haymarket in Basingstoke on Friday, May 27.

"Graeme of Thrones is a unique take on Game of Thrones created by three idiots - I'm talking about the characters in the show, not the actors!" said Ali Brice, who plays Graeme in the production.

"My character, Graeme, has his heart set on putting on the best Game of Thrones tribute show there is.

"The only problem is, he doesn't have any talent.

"But what he lacks in talent he more than makes up for with blind optimism and ruthless hope."

The chance to perform in a professional production is a "dream come true" for Ali.

Despite being a part-time stand-up comic and actor for many years, which saw him do a number of shows at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Ali's goal of becoming a professional actor looked like a pipe dream as he couldn't get his big break into showbusiness.

However, after getting an invitation to audition in the fantasy spoof, the performer's big break finally arrived, which saw Ali finally quit his office job for a few months to pursue his acting dream.

"I guess when I was a little boy, I always wanted to be an actor, but as I got older I branched out," Ali told the Observer.

"At the end of the day, this has allowed me to quit my job at an office for a few months so I can get to live the dream.

"And after 'Graeme of Thrones', hopefully something else might turn up."

He added: "If you keep working hard and keep doing what you love, then it will all work out in the end."

The show starts at 7.30pm.

Band set for pub show

BASINGSTOKE-BASED covers group So Close is anticipating an enthusiastic reception when they return to The Winkle Pub on Friday, May 27.

Known for performing countless rock hits from the 1950s to the current day, the four-piece band, consisting of vocalist and rhythm guitarist Andi Schipelbaum, bass guitarist John Haworth-Ward, lead guitarist Stew Colley and drummer Toby Noble, has a strong following at Winklebury Way venue.

And member Andi is hoping that the crowd on the night for the free gig by the semi-professional musicians will be one of the very best.

He said: "I love the energy that an enthusiastic crowd gives off, it's quite addictive really.

"The more an audience enjoys a set, the more we do.

"We have a professional attitude and it's highly rewarding to see people who like what we've worked so hard on.

"Personally, I was incredibly lucky and raised in a very loving family environment that loves music and dance.

"My sister chose dance and I chose music and our parents gave us so much support it was easy for us to get started."

By James Richings

The band is set to perform two more times this year in and around Hampshire, but due to their popularity, the band's gig list is set to increase.

And despite being a covers band that only formed roughly 18 months ago, So Close will also perform a number of their original tunes next Friday.

The group's own tracks have been inspired by the artists they replicate, with Andi not wanting to give too much away about their songs, or the tracks that they will be covering.

However, it is fair to say that for each gig they do, the set list is different.

"We're not just a covers band so we'll be playing a good few of our own tracks in the mix too," Andi said.

"Our tracks are definitely more to the rock side of rock and roll but, so far, they have been positively received."

It starts at 8pm.

BEN POOLE AND STEVIE NIMMO

This dual pistol tour features two of the most sizzling soloists on the blues circuit. One evening, two shows. Ben Poole kicks things off with his no punches pulled, "in-ner-face" rock attack. Amongst the most standout blues guitarists to have emerged in the last few years Ben has played with legendary blues artists (and his own personal idols) Jeff Beck, Gary Moore and John Mayall, to name just three. Stevie Nimmo has 20 years of touring all over the world under his belt with The Nimmo Brothers, alongside (you guessed it) his brother Alan. Glasgow born and raised, Stevie is family taught. After a cancer diagnosis in 2009, the resulting surgery led to the loss of Stevie's voice for two years. Not one to be parted from his craft, Stevie spent this period songwriting - which came together as his first solo album "The Wynde of Life". Due to his health, Stevie has had to cut back on his touring schedule, so this is a rare chance to experience the feeling to his gritty Americana blues.

Alfa's new Giulietta proves seductive drive

THERE is much to like about the Alfa Romeo Giulietta – for instance it is such a pretty car and will make some of us wonder why we went out and bought that Vauxhall instead.

Not many of you will know this, but I used to own an Alfa Romeo Alfasud.

Yes, it was terrible and made by people who did not seem to care, but things have changed at Alfa and the end result is the Giulietta that looks and drives fantastically.

Power and Efficiency:

My test car was fitted with a 1.4 TB MultiAir engine with 150bhp. Top speed is about 130mph and 0-62 is up in about 8.2 seconds. Of course, it is not the fastest model in the range – that would be the 240hp version and that will easily break 150mph.

Fuel economy for the 1.4 is about 49.6mpg (combined) with CO2 emissions of 127 g/km. I like this range of engines – they are refined and sip fuel.

On the road:

This is an Alfa – it was meant to ride well and the Giulietta feels very good on all road surfaces. However, I do think the suspension is a little hard sometimes, but that is dependent on the car setting you decide to choose. There are no dramas into the corners either and you can feel the Alfa DNA in bucketloads.

By Anthony Yates

Design and Interior:

Look around inside the Giulietta and you can see the setting has been well thought out with the driver in mind. I like the way the centre console swoops down around you, giving you easy access to all the controls you will need. The interior is made of a decent quality material that should wear well for many years. The seats are well supported and leg room is good for all occupants.

Technology:

The 'Sprint' model is well kitted out – with additions such as Alfa DNA (Vehicles Driving Mode Selector) DAB radio, LED daytime running light, ABS + ASR + EBD as standard, Uconnect 5" colour touchscreen, tyre pressure monitoring system, front and rear electric windows and a rear spoiler.

Safety is good with six air bags plus Isofix attachments for child seat protection. Euro NCAP awarded the Giulietta five stars with an adult occupant rating of 97 per cent and a child occupant rating of 85 per cent.

• To sum up: The Giulietta is a great car to drive – it feels well built and has that all important Alfa DNA installed at its heart.

Price: (from) £20,570 OTR

Old Tauntonians strike to defeat Basingstoke

Sport Bites

League decided

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town will play their football in the Southern League Premier Division next season, it has been confirmed.

The Dragons finished bottom of the National League South last season, although it was not initially known into which league they would drop.

But the Football Association has now finalised the league formation, with Basingstoke joining Hayes and Yeading in playing in the Southern League, with Havant and Waterlooville being relegated into the Isthmian League.

The FA has yet to release the fixtures, although it has been confirmed that the opening game of the season will take place on August 6, and the last match on April 22.

Basingstoke Town Ladies also confirmed that they would take promotion to the Premier League South West after winning the Southern Region Women's Football League Premier Division last season.

Double defeat

CRICKET: Hook and Newnham Basics and Hartley Wintney were both handed heavy defeats on Saturday.

Southern League Division One side Hook lost to Sarisbury Athletic by nine wickets.

And Hartley Wintney's wait for a first win in the Southern League Division Two was extended as they lost to Calmore Sports by 115 runs.

Strong showing

MOTORSPORT: Basingstoke powerboat racer Daisy Coleman put in a strong performance on the opening race of the UK P1 Superstock season on Sunday.

Coleman's Pertemps Network team finished level on points with Quantum Racing at the top of the standings in extremely difficult conditions at Scarborough.

But she and brother Sam were pushed back into second place following a countback, to leave them in a strong position heading into the next round at Greenock on June 18.

Bison to ice five imports a game from next season after EPL vote

BASINGSTOKE Bison will be able to ice five non-UK trained players in games from next season in the English Premier League (EPL).

Club owners from across the league have voted to increase the import allowance by one in order to close the gap on the Elite Ice Hockey League.

The decision was made following the departure of a number of high-profile British players during the start of the off-season, and it is hoped that the move will increase the profile of the EPL.

Teams will still have to ensure that a minimum of three UK players are on the ice at all times, although it is hoped that the change will increase the focus on investment in youth development.

Bison director of hockey Doug Sheppard said: "Recent discussions about the number of imports caused strong arguments both for and against the transition of staying at four or moving to five imports, I just hope the right decision has been made."

He continued: "We will remain focused on the development of juniors but this move will also create a more challenging environment."

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants suffered their first league loss of the season on Saturday.

The Bountymen lost by two wickets to Old Tauntonians and Romsey as they travelled for their first away match of the Southern Premier Division One campaign.

Opener Chris Froud's 40 proved to be the highest score any player on the field would muster at Romsey Sports Centre as both sides struggled with the bat.

By Christian Wilson

But that was not to be enough on the day as knocks from mid-order batsman Stuart Shapland (29) and Keith Trodd (23) edged the tie in the home side's favour.

Basingstoke went into the match with their tails up after captain Mitch Stokes' superb century seven days earlier had seen them claim a narrow win over Sarisbury Athletic on the opening day.

But after winning the toss and electing to bat first, the visitors struggled to assert themselves after that, with Daniel Belcher, Ben Julin, Stokes and Craig Williamson all falling for seven runs or less.

The biggest blow came after that however, as Froud was caught and bowled by Stuart Shapland (2-13) to leave his side on 85-5.

And aside from knocks of 14, 13 and 12 from Martyn James, Max Harsham and Chris Jolley, Basingstoke's innings unravelled quickly after that as they were bowled out for just 125 runs.

Old Tauntonians endured an even worse start to their reply as Graham Porter (2-29), James (2-25) and Stokes (1-18) combined to leave the hosts in trouble on 42-5.

But Shapland and Trodd then arrived at the crease to make their telling contributions from further down the order, before being removed by Mathew Thankachan (1-2) and Daniel Belcher (2-16) respectively.

And with the low run chase in their sights, Jody Brown's 17 not out then took the hosts past the 125 mark with just seven balls of play remaining to claim the win.

Basingstoke will hope to bounce back from the defeat when they return to league action this Saturday at May's Bounty against Andover.

Rose rues second day slump at Sawgrass

JUSTIN Rose put in another encouraging display last week but still saw his wait for an eighth career PGA tour win continue.

The world number 10 was at his very best on the opening and final day of the Players Championship at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach.

But crucially the north Hampshire golfer also put in two indifferent rounds in between to finish 10 shots off winner Jason Day to claim a tie for 19th spot.

Rose went into the Florida-based tournament on the back of a third-placed finish in the Wells Fargo Championship days earlier.

And he looked good odds to claim his first tour win since last April after a sumptuous opening seven-under par score of 65 that saw him hit all 18 greens in regulation.

Rose claimed birdies at one, two, nine, 12, 17 and 18 on Thursday, while also adding an eagle at the 16th hole.

But a back problem hampered the former Robert May's School pupil the following day, as bogeys on the second, fifth, sixth and 11th holes saw him card a score of 74 (+2).

And worse was to follow on Saturday on the back nine, with Rose struggling at 11, 16 and 17 to claim three double bogeys on the way to a six-over par score of 78.

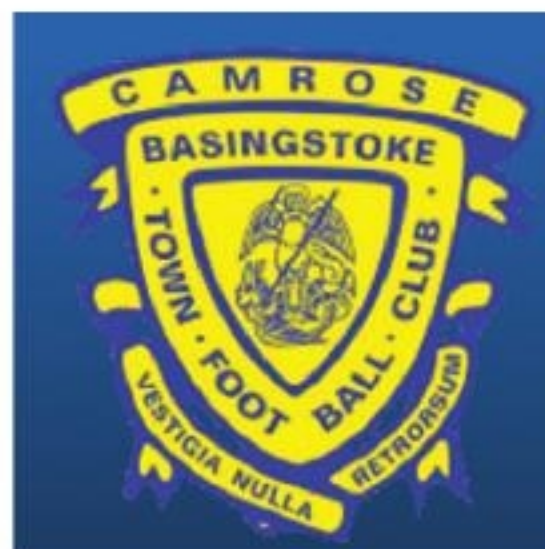

That score left the 35-year-old with nothing to play for, but with the pressure off, Rose improved dramatically to claim birdies at the second, fourth, seventh and ninth.

And he then celebrated claiming four birdies in a row with a dance on the green on the 17th as he carded a six-under par score of 66 to finish as the highest placed Englishman.

Speaking to Sky Sports, Rose said: "It was fun. We knew were going to get some decent scoring conditions playing early this morning so it was nice to finish strong with a 66. "I struggled with my back for some reason this weekend so my warm-up on Saturday was incredibly short.

"Once my score started going sideways I started to use it as practice to get my eye in."

LONG SIGNS TO BOOST TITLE HOPE

BASINGSTOKE Bison have re-signed a third player from last season's title-winning side for next season's roster.

Forward Ciaran Long will suit up for the Herd again from September after agreeing to spend another year at the Basingstoke Arena.

The 25-year-old was superb for the Stampede as they claimed the English Premier League (EPL) title, with his 29 goals and 63 points seeing him end the campaign as the top British scorer for the club.

Long's confirmation comes hot on the heels of fellow forwards Tomas Karpov and Aaron Connolly re-signing for Basingstoke, with head coach Doug Sheppard expressing his delight to have been able to retain the Birmingham-born player.

By Christian Wilson

He said: "Ciaran is one of the top players in this league and last year he played on both wings, as well as down the middle for us."

"This means you can slot him in anywhere in the line-up."

"He ended the season forming a very good partnership with Tomas and I may play the pair together at the start of this coming season, we will have to wait and see."

EPL All-Star first team player Long will warm up for next season by playing for New Zealand-based Canterbury Red Devils over the summer, ahead of completing his fifth season in Basingstoke.

And the reigning Bison goal-of-the-season award winner insisted that he wanted to stay with the Herd for "a few more years yet".

Long said: "I have often moved around in my career, but I feel really settled in Basingstoke and I am having a great time."

"So I see my future with the Bison for a few more years yet."

"It was great last season to win the league and our aim will now be to retain the title."

Long added: "We know it is not going to be easy, as ever since I have played in the EPL, every year the standard has gone up and I see no reason not to think it will do the same again."

"We have the makings of a really good team, so we will give it our best shot to bring some more silverware home."

The Herd also confirmed last week that Finnish-born net-minder Jon Baston would not be offered a contract to return to the club next term.

Baston was brought to Planet Ice in November as injury cover for Tomas Hladovsky, and played a key role in the club's title win - setting a new league record for shutouts in a season and being named in the EPHL's All-Star first lineup.
